

The ABCs of FEMA Disaster Assistance

Immediately after a disaster

If you have insurance, file a claim immediately with your insurance provider. The Federal Emergency Management Agency cannot duplicate insurance or other benefits, so the agency will need to know about any insurance settlement.

Register with FEMA as soon as possible if you sustained disaster-related damage to your home and if you live in a county designated for FEMA Individual Assistance.

