

Esabella Strickland

Esabella Strickland: An Award Winning Actress, This is Esabella's first Film as a Writer and Film Director, Esabella wrote, co-directed and starred in My Red Ball. Esabella is working on her Second Film called call the note book which is about another urban legend of a notebook that takes the souls of kids

Director Statement

At a young age I was bullied in school because I learned differently (having ADHD and Dyslexia) I was Socially Alienated. It was after I changed schools that I began to gain confidence. It was the help of Young Movie Makers to help me tell stories that empower the GenZ generation. - Esabella Strickland.