

Javier Robles

Director, screenwriter and photographer. His first short film “Manuel” has been selected in more than 60 international festivals and has won 12 prizes in just 8 months of distribution. He has also shot different documentaries like “Sobre mi familia cuando la pandemia”, which has been prized by TAI School as Best Audiovisual Work.

As a photographer, he’s specialized on street photography, being able to capture everyday nature with a personal style. He has won several prizes. He has knowledge about editing, color grading and sound editing.

Laura Villamisar

Producer and cinematographer. She has been part of the technical team on the short film “Manuel” as cinematographer, producer and co-screenwriter.

She has produced and shot many social thematic audiovisual projects. Some of them were awarded nationally.

After the success with “Manuel”, Laura and Javier met up to shoot “The sea around us”, with Julián Muñoz.

Julián Muñoz

Art director and editor. He works as a freelance graphic designer for Youtube artists. He has years of experience as Community Manager on social network.

He has produced videos for different kind of events. He has participated on the short film “Las tres edades” and he shot next to Laura and Javier, “The sea around us”.