Local History	Where Stories Live	202	10/1/2024	22:30	26:33:00	In the third season of WCTE's newest locally produced series, Avery Hutchins, host and WCTE CEO, talked with Todd Mayo, the creative mind behind the hit PBS show, The Caverns Sessions; and she plumbed the depths of Darren Shell, an Overton County author, historian, folklorist and storyteller. In the previous two seasons, Avery explore the importance of Native American culture in the modern Upper Cumberland; visited with a mechanical engineer who persevered through homelessness; and local athlete who transitioned from sports to ballet; explored the experience of African American veterans in Putnam County, dating back to the Civil War; and documented the life journey of local resident and acclaimed singer/songwriter Darrell Scott.

Count Of Format	Segment Length	Description
1	00:05:38	According to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration data, drunk driving crashes are as much as 40 percent higher between Thanksgiving and New Year's Day than the rest of the year. The legal blood alcohol limit in the U.S. is higher than around the world, and advocat
1	00:10:21	In our ongoing look at treating substance abuse in America, we turn to the most commonly used drug, and one of the deadliest: alcohol. Drinking kills more Americans every year than opioids or any other illegal drug. But promising treatments that could help people curb their drinki
1	00:06:41	This week, we are reporting on some promising treatments for two of the deadliest drugs in America: opioids and alcohol. William Brangham sat down with one of the nation's leading researchers who is studying America's addictions and how we can better address them.
1	00:08:31	Now that the Assad regime in Syria has fallen, the full scale of that government's production and distribution of illicit drugs is coming to light. Leila Molana-Allen reports from the drug factories in Syria.
1	00:56:46	Jamestown, Virginia. The site of the first permanent English colony the Americas settled in 1607 and the home of the archaeological site "Historic Jamestowne" today. It has long been speculated that the harsh conditions faced by the colonists during the winter of 1609, often referre
1	00:52:38	Discover how the 'Don't Tread on Me' flag, such a potent symbol of independence, has been co-opted by a wide variety of Americans over its long history.
1	00:04:17	Despite centuries on the national seal and widespread assumption, the bald eagle has never officially been designated as the national bird. John Yang reports on the effort to change that and why it matters.
1	00:00:00	Join Apollo 11 on its historic journey. The film seamlessly blends mission audio featuring conversations among Neil Armstrong, Buzz Aldrin and Michael Collins with new footage, NASA archive and stunning CGI to recreate the first moon landing.
1	01:53:50	By the late 1880s, the buffalo that once numbered in the tens of millions is teetering on the brink of extinction. But a diverse and unlikely collection of Americans start a movement that rescues the national mammal from disappearing forever.
1	00:56:46	See how Diana defied expectations and evolved into one of the most impactful icons of our time. Look back on her life through a contemporary lens that credits her choices, suffering and triumphs as the ultimate disrupter for a generation of women.
1	00:56:46	Discover the untold story behind Paris' most famous landmark and the race to build a monument 1,000 feet tall. Through dramatic recreations, official renderings and personal archives, see how the Eiffel Tower became an icon.
1	00:00:00	This film traces the ascent of an ambitious country boy from a peanut farm in Plains, Georgia, to the Oval Office; it examines the failings of Jimmy Carter's political leadership in the context of the turbulent 1970s; and explores the role religion played in his career. Carter ran for pre:
